BOOK OF THE YEAR 1966

A LOOK BACK AT 1966

Very early in the year, Lou Thesz lost his world's heavyweight title in St. Louis, Missouri. Interestingly, a night before that he made one of his rare appearances in tag team action.

Title Tag Match

THESZ & ELLIS vs. GEIGEL & BROWN

The winners will be declared the N. A. tag team champions. The title and belts were taken from Geigel & Brown several weeks ago by the Kansas Athletic commission after they ruled Geigel & Brown had purposely got themselves disqualified rather than risk a beating from Thesz & Ellis. THERE MUST BE A WINNER!

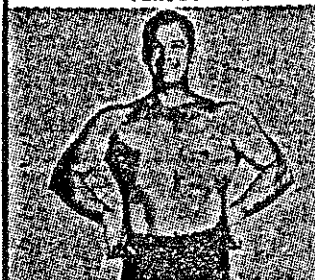

The new titleholder made some of his first defenses in the Sunshine State.

Hennig-Race Simmer Over Treatment

You could safely say Larry Hennig and Harley Race don't exactly plan to send Wally Karbo a card when the latter's birthday rolls around.

This week, the Hennig-Race team was again fuming at the Minneapolis promoter, and for the first time in months, their complaints had a bit of logic.

"Look at it this way," Hennig said. "How can Karbo justify his actions against us?"

Continuing, the Robbinsdale native chirped: "With any other world tag-team champion, the title is held and recognized until it is lost. With us, Karbo always inserts some kind of a clause. First he wouldn't recognize Harley and I as the champions. Then he said he would recognize us only if we met Gagne and Ladd, followed by a match against the Crusher and the Bruiser. What kind of reasoning is that?"

Race was just as vehement. "Have you ever heard of anything like that? Since when do champions have to agree to two successive matches before local promoter considers them as the real champs they are?" Race interjected.

Some time ago, both Race and Hennig told Karbo they would defend their title in some other city unless Karbo relaxed the rules. Even more recently they threatened to move out unless they were given better treatment by the promoter.

"You look back on some of the deals Karbo has pulled and you know what we mean," they both chattered in unison.

Hennig added: "It's quite obvious Karbo doesn't want us around, and he's trying anything in his power to make us depart."

Meanwhile, in the other corner, the Crusher and the Bruiser still figure they are the rightful champions. They point to a tag match with Hennig and Race a couple of months ago when the cousins actually won the bout, but didn't get the championship because of the disqualification clause. In that wild battle, Hennig used a ringside chair to get his point across.

The Crusher had the best of Race in that death match when Hennig rapped Milwaukee's pride and joy across the head.

That was the match that changed Karbo's thinking, because when that one was completed, Karbo and St. Paul promoter Eddie Williams both said Crusher and Bruiser were on top of the stack.

"I told Hennig and Race I would recognize them as champs only if they met Gagne and Ladd, followed by a match with Crusher and Bruiser. They agreed, so I don't know what they are kicking about," Karbo stated.

Fans can be sure of one thing: The four battlers who will tear into each other tonight rate as four of the toughest customers in the business. Race and Hennig are probably known more for their pier six brawls than anyone, but even so, they have to go some to beat the rough-house tactics of Crusher and Bruiser, long regarded as two of the best clean-up artists the ring has seen.

Like in the old days of fast draw artists in the western saloons, it's showdown time tonight, and who is to say a "quick trigger" won't be the best weapon once the mayhem gets under way?

★ ★ Alaskan Eyes June 4 Bouts ★ ★

The Alaskan is already looking beyond tonight's bout with 345-pound Moose Cholak.

"I've got my eye on that June 4 card," the Alaskan belated. "That's the one that counts, because Karbo picks the man who will challenge Vachone, and I'm his boy."

The Alaskan has been complaining for some time that Karbo isn't giving him a fair shake, stating that he's a main eventer who has been appearing in preliminary bouts.

"When the June 4 bouts are out of the way, Karbo won't have any choice. He'll have to pick me as the top challenger," the Alaskan said with an air of confidence.

KARBO'S KOLUMN

By WALLY KARBO

Minneapolis Wrestling Promoter

ANYONE WHO IS A PROFESSIONAL wrestling promoter must expect to have difficult times with some of the grapplers, and believe me, I'm no exception. When you have so many top stars in action, it's natural that everyone wants top booking, and it's my job to see that the deserving men do get a shot at the top rung on the ladder. Within the past few weeks, the demands by most of the men who are appearing regularly on cards here have been more and more pressing, so I figure the only solution is to get 'em all together on one night, and when the action is terminated, I'll know who is in line for a match with champ Maurice Vachone. That's what we have planned for Saturday, June 4. The story on the back page of this program gives you an idea of what's in store.

PICKING ONE MAN to go against Vachone is one matter, but trying to get Mad Dog back in town is another. After trying unsuccessfully for the past week to sign him to a Minneapolis contract, I've called the AWA office to see what suggestions they have, and the AWA indicated to me that Vachone must come back here mighty soon, or suffer the rules that they hand down. This doesn't impress Vachone, however. I did reach him in Detroit recently, and he was lukewarm to me on the phone, like I was an Internal Revenue man asking for a conference to go over tax statements. I've still got a trump card up my sleeve, however, and I'll guarantee fans that Vachone will be back here soon or suffer the wrath of the AWA - and he knows what consequences that can bring.

OF ALL THE WRESTLERS who have pestered me consistently about main event booking, the Alaskan leads the pack. He points out that he is main event material, and I don't argue that with him. I did point out, however, that there are a few others around here who have been waiting a long time for top billing. The Alaskan is already rubbing his hands in anticipation when he thinks of that all-star card on June 4, but he's not alone, because Chris Markoff, Reg Parks and Chris Tolos have a few plans for that night also. I can't think of a card in recent years that will have so many top men in action.

ANOTHER WRESTLER WHO MUST BE given serious consideration now is Billy Red Cloud from the White Earth Indian reservation in northern Minnesota. Complete with his victory dance and colorful outfit, Red Cloud has captured the fancy of local fans. What I like about him is the fact he's honest and not the boasting type. He admits most of his opponents are tough, but he also reminds you he's capable of doing the job himself. Keep your eye on this fellow, he's going to be around all summer, and before long he could be going against these same top men I've mentioned earlier.

BEFORE TONIGHT'S BOUTS, I was toying with the idea of adding extra policemen for reinforcements, because I know how a tag battle with two tough teams like this can easily get out of hand. I've instructed both teams to toe the mark, but my experience over the years indicated that this may be one of the toughest bouts ever offered fans. Let's face it, Hennig and Race have been known to resort to any means just to get a victory, and the Crusher and the Bruiser aren't exactly missionaries on vacation.

I KNOW LARRY HENNING and HARLEY RACE have been blasting me from pillar to post for my failure to recognize them as tag champs unless they meet Gagne and Ladd, followed by a match against the Crusher and the Bruiser, but the tactics they used against Bruiser and Crusher a couple of months ago left me no alternative. Finally, I decided I would toss the toughest assignment possible at them, and if they survived, they could rightfully be called champions. We'll see tonight.

On Night of Bout...

'We'll Match 'Em if They Get Rough' Claim Battle Veterans Bruiser, Crusher

What kind of thoughts race through the minds of the Crusher and the Bruiser as they prepare for a world tag-team pro wrestling championship?

"We know the importance of this match, and we plan to be ready for anything they offer," chirped the Bruiser. "I know what these guys do, now that I've been against 'em before, and rest assured we'll resort to any tactics necessary to put them out of the picture," he continued.

The last time these two tag teams met in St. Paul about two months ago, they hit each other with everything but the ring posts, and both teams are aware of it. The ring referee is certain to be the first man to earn his salary tonight.

Hennig and Race look upon this match as just another defense of their title. They point to the fact they have disposed of other tough teams before, and quickly remind the fans they met Verne Gagne and Ernie Ladd last Saturday and weren't shorn of their title, although Gagne and Ladd were given the verdict by disqualification.

"Fans are misled by disqualifications," Hennig said. "Sure, you lose your temper and flare up, but these same fans quickly forget that the other team doesn't exactly follow the rule book to a letter either."

When someone hinted that maybe a disqualification was the "easy" way out to save a title, Hennig and Race shouted together: "If the referee kept his eyes on everything that goes on, the penalty more often than not would go to the other team. Most of the time we just retaliate with the same medicine they give us."

World Title Showdown Assured for Spectators

Saturday, June 4, will be ALL-STAR time at the Minneapolis Convention hall (auditorium) when promoter Wally Karbo brings in the biggest lineup of talent since wrestling switched to Saturday nights some time ago.

Among the top names scheduled to appear here next Saturday are Wilbur Snyder, Verne Gagne, the Crusher, the Bruiser, Ernie Ladd, the Alaskan, Reg Parks, Chris Markoff and Chris Tolos, to mention a few.

"I can't think of any card that will have more top stars appearing in one evening," said Karbo. "I've been working on this night for a long time, contacting wrestlers from all over to assure fans the very best talent. There won't be a card anywhere in the United States this year with so many top men in action," Karbo continued.

The Minneapolis promoter wants to hold some kind of an elimination match to see which of these top men qualifies to meet champ Mad Dog Vachone in the near future, but at SPORTS FACTS deadline time, he was uncertain as to what means he would use.

"These are all top men, and any of them would be a suitable opponent for Vachone, but I just don't know which one will earn the title shot," Karbo mused.

It's no secret Vachone is difficult to sign to a contract these days (see accompanying story), and Karbo is getting irritated about the whole thing. "If I have to go to the AWA to settle this thing I will. Vachone isn't ducking out on me," Karbo snarled.

Fans in his area who are in the habit of circling a date on their calendar for THE TOP cards are reminded that matches such as those planned next Saturday won't come along too often. It's comparable to the best talent in any sport getting together for an all-star game.

In addition to Gagne and the Crusher, one of the crowd favorites around here for years has been Wilbur Snyder, the handsome Californian, and he was the first to sign. "I can't wait to get back to Minneapolis," Snyder told Karbo.

Karbo Shows No Progress Trying to Sign Mad Dog

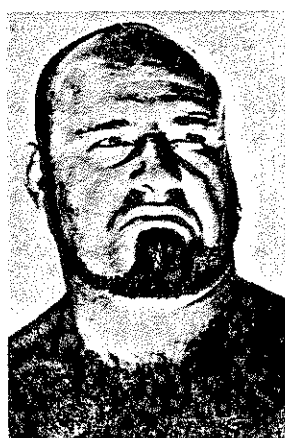

Minneapolis wrestling promoter Wally Karbo has been burning up the telephone lines trying to nail down Maurice "Mad Dog" Vachone for an upcoming bout in the Mill town, but the Frenchman has been mighty elusive.

"Vachone is like the vanishing wind," Karbo moaned. "I can't get him to commit himself. I've offered him an outstanding purse to appear in Minneapolis, but he doesn't give me a satisfactory answer."

For a number of weeks now, Vachone has, in effect, told Karbo: "I can't promise a thing."

"I'm tired of chasing this guy all over the country. When you are champ, it's your job to defend against the top men, and that's what Vachone will do or I'll bar him from Minneapolis for good," Karbo added.

Everyone wants a crack at Vachone, naturally. When Verne Gagne held the title, the former Robbinsdale athlete met all challengers regularly, and emerged triumphant most of the time. This is the way a champ should respond, but with Vachone it's the fade-away act, and Karbo is boiling in the meantime.

LOOKS LIKE 'THE DESTROYER' IS TRAPPED!!

MILLIE ZEC . . . This girl wrestler is due to make her Wrestlethon debut soon.

LYONS CONFIDENT HE'LL GET THAT MASK THIS TIME

As far as Billy "Red" Lyons is concerned, this is the greatest night in wrestling history. It sure is for him, for this is the night he gets The Destroyer, who once was his tag team partner, in a nothing-barred battle that is going to cost The Destroyer his mask unless he is man enough to beat Red.

This is the "posse match" suggested by Referee Marvin Jones a few weeks back. It will be two falls out of three, no time limit, no disqualifications—and six (6) wrestlers stationed around the ring to throw back anybody who tries to run. If The Destroyer is beaten in this one there is no way he can keep his mask.

At least that is the way Promoter Frank Brown figures it and he went to a lot of trouble to make the masked man sign for this kind of contest.

"He can't run and he sure can't hide; this time he is going to have to fight. And I believe Billy will have the best of him at that," the fair-minded promoter said.

BILLY "RED" LYONS . . . He says this is the night he gets revenge. He promises that The Destroyer's mask is coming off!

It looks like it, judging from the way the Canadian's been going lately. Lyons holds five consecutive falls over his former partner but has not been able to force him to unmask because of the time limit or a disqualification. And once The Destroyer escaped by running away from "Killer Karl" Kox.

If something like that happens tonight—well, the promoter will have to admit he just didn't think of everything. But it looks like The Destroyer is trapped this time.

GENE KINISKI The "Big Thunder" wants to come back here but says it will have to be for a championship match.

KINISKI READY TO DEFEND TITLE IN SAN ANTONIO FLASH! FLASH! FLASH!

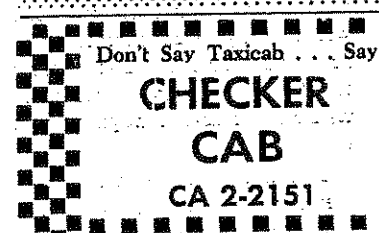

"Giant Gene" Kiniski, the world heavyweight champion, is ready to come back to San Antonio and there will be a championship match on his next visit here.

The Canadian laid down only one rule to Promoter Frank Brown for such a match: There has to be an outstanding, worthy contender available for the bout.

The promoter laughed and assured Kiniski there would be no trouble along those lines. His trouble would come from trying to pick out just one man from all the men who would be available—men like Red Lyons, The Destroyer, Mark Lewin (with Danny McShane attached, of course), "Killer Karl" Kox and The Mummy.

"I believe Kiniski would have to admit that any one of those men could keep him fairly busy for three falls," Promoter Brown said.

But just in case the champion didn't agree, the promoter has a couple of aces up his sleeve. Wilbur Snyder is anxious to wrestle here again, and so is Pat O'Connor, the former world champion. ★★

PAT O'CONNOR . . . The former heavyweight champion is challenging Gene Kiniski for his new belt and has informed Promoter Frank Brown he would like for the match to be in San Antonio.

Super Planned

Promoter Frank Brown let the news slip the other day — he is planning another super spectacular card at the Municipal Auditorium.

Nothing definite can be announced this early because there is always the problem of having the Auditorium available at the same time when the big stars of the mat world are available.
However, it is hoped that everything will work out for April.

Look for the announcement.

FLASH!!!

"The Brute" wants to pay San Antonio another visit.

"The Brute" is the name Dick the Bruiser is known as by his fellow wrestlers. He will be available for a match here "when that promoter down there can provide an opponent he guarantees will be mean and tough."

Frank Brown looked down the list — Mark Lewin, "Killer Karl"
Kox, Billy Lyons, The Mummy,
The Destroyer—and said he thought he could guarantee the right kind of opposition.

AND MC SHANE

"Then, when I've taken care of the big guy, I'll be glad to take on the punk, just for dessert.
I want to squash him, just for my fun and pleasure for the fans."

The promoter said he would take the suggestion under consideration.

Kox, by the way, suffered no permanent damage to his eyes in his last bout with Lewin, although McShane certainly didn't plan it that way. ★★

ERNIE LADD . . . The football star is back in wrestling and looking for trouble. If The Destroyer accepts his challenge, he will find plenty of trouble.

LADD ASKS MATCH WITH DESTROYER AT THIS ARENA

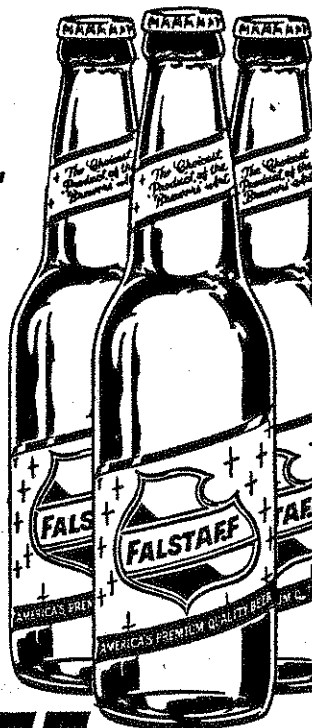

Never let it be said that The Destroyer doesn't work overtime in making enemies. Now Ernie Ladd has put himself in line with all the others—and his challenge came as a surprise.

Ladd—who during late summer and winter is a star tackle for the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League—hasn't wrestled here in months, but it seems that he and the masked man have tangled in other places. Now The Destroyer refuses to go against the 275 pound giant and Ladd has turned to Promoter Frank Brown, the man who has the reputation of making the tough matches. Now Ladd's challenge is on file—along with a lot of others who want The Destroyer's hide. Brown says he will do his best to keep everybody happy, especially the fans. ★★

Don't forget: Reservations for matches at the Wrestlethon may be made by telephone. Just call CA. 6-1529.

MUMMY VS. DESTROYER?

It will be out of the frying pan and into the fire for The Destroyer if he is successful in beating Billy "Red" Lyons here tonight and keeping his identity a secret.

Another challenger already is in line, just in case Lyons misses. He is The Mummy, that strange South American who looks like something out of an Egyptian tomb.

The Mummy—who admits he is Benjamin Ramirez in private life—got enough of The Destroyer in a tag team match last week and challenged him to a more personal battle.

The stakes will be their masks. The loser has to show his face.

But Lyons may beat The Mummy to this unveiling act for The Destroyer. ★★

THESZ RETAINS RATING

Bobo Brazil Drops Third Fall in Mat Event

Lou Thesz, 235, Phoenix, Ariz., kept his top rating intact last night by beating Bobo Brazil, 315, Benton Harbor, Mich., in the main event on a Veterans of Foreign Wars wrestling card in Municipal Auditorium.

Thesz took the first fall with a cross body block and press. Brazil evened the match with a series of head butts and a bulldog headlock.

In the deciding fall Brazil tried for another bulldog headlock, missed and Thesz applied a backdrop. Both men hit the mat and Thesz made the pin.

SEMIFINALS

TAG TEAM—Bob Geigel, 245, Amarillo, Tex., and Bob Brown, 243, Winnipeg, over the Mongolian Stomper, 280, and Lee Henning, 234, Buffalo. Geigel downed the Stomper with knee thrusts and a press; the Stomper stomped Brown for the second pin. Geigel used a half crab submission on Henning for the deciding fall.

SPECIAL EVENT

Lou Thesz Loses Mat Title to Gene Kiniski

Lou Thesz, who has held the National Wrestling Alliance heavyweight championship a record six times, today faced the necessity of winning it again if he is to continue a reign that has already lasted more than a quarter-century.

Gene Kiniski, a 275-pound Canadian, scored an upset victory over Thesz last night when he took the third and deciding fall of their title match.

Thesz, who will be 50 years old in April, had won the first fall but the second went to Kiniski on a disqualification.

Thesz, seemingly by accident, tossed Kiniski over the ropes. The Canadian had a head scissors on Thesz at the time and Lou was attempting to dislodge him. Referee Joe Schoenberger exacted the penalty at 4 minutes and 28 seconds.

Kiniski won the third fall on a backbreaker hold in 1 minute 17 seconds.

Thesz, a native of St. Louis who now headquarters at Phoenix, Arizona, last won the title from Buddy Rogers in 1963. Thesz weighed 235 pounds last night.

World Mat Title On Line Tuesday

Gene Kiniski will put his newly won world heavyweight wrestling championship on the line for the first time in Texas when he meets top challenger Fritz (Iron Claw) Von Erich in the feature of Promoter Ed Mc-Lemore's 6-bout card Tuesday night at the Sportatorium.

Kiniski won the championship recently from Lou Thesz in St. Louis. The new champion faced Von Erich in the Dallas ring twice last year without a win; one bout ended in a draw and Von Erich took the other.

The championship bout will be best-of-3 falls, 60-minute limit route.

Newcomer Luke Graham comes in to team with Killer Karl Kox in the tag-team semifinal against Billy (Red) Lyons and Jerry Miller. The special event will pit Pedro Morales and Mark Lewin.

Mexico's Pepe Gomez makes his Dallas debut against The Destroyer in the third bout. Ramon Torres will tackle The Golden Terror after Zuma faces Indian Joe in the opener.

Cookie Bans Moose Cholak In Mat Bout

Cookie Gilchrist made his debut as a wrestling referee Friday night, and disqualified Moose Cholak in the main event of a Memorial Auditorium program before a gathering of 4,287.

Gilchrist awarded a penalty fall to Bobo Brazil after 19:38 when Cholak tossed Gilchrist to the canvas following repeated warnings to cease using a head-gear on Brazil.

Gilchrist bounced up in a hurry, flattened Cholak with a driving tackle, and added the disqualification for good measure.

Hans Schmidt and Johnny Powers both were disqualified by Referee Teddy Thomas after 20:37 of the semifinal for fighting outside the ring.

Dr. Bill Miller won a handicap team match from Mario Fratarolli and Terry Yorkston, and the Mighty Masked Yankee won over the Beast and the Magnificent Maurice when Yankee No. 1 pinned Maurice in 18:21 with a back-breaker.

The Bat Man won over Bull Johnson in 14:38 with a slam and press.

Straight Falls

Cowboy Bob Ellis and the Mongolian Stomper took two straight falls, the first by disqualification, over Oki Shikina and Tor Kamata in a tag team match that headed the American Legion wrestling card last night in Memorial hall, Kansas City, Kansas.

The disqualification came after Shikina used karate thrusts on the Stomper, who came back in the next fall with stomps to the head of Kamata and a press for the deciding fall.

In the semifinal Ernie Ladd flattened Bulldog Plechas with a standing drop kick and covered for the count.

SEMIFINAL

For want of early foot a wrestling match is lost

Being a track star isn't one of Whipper Billy Watson's better accomplishments. He showed that at Maple Leaf Gardens yesterday when he failed to catch an unmasked Dandy Yankee and lost the wrestling match.

Whipper unmasked Dandy during yesterday's main event fracas. But with bowed head, Dandy took off for the dressing room—with Whip in hot pursuit.

While all this was going on, Athol Layton pinned Doodle Yankee. So what happens? After a conference, referees Tiger Tasker and Lou Pitoscia raise the limp arm of the unconscious Doodle in victory.

The masked Yankees are still winners, and the Whip and Layton are more frustrated than ever.

Main Event

Masked Yankees, 600 lbs awarded decision over Whipper Watson, 235, and Athol Layton, 265. Watson counted out of ring at 19:23 of one-fall match.

Semi-final

Ernie Ladd, 315, and Johnny Powers, 261, wrestled 20 minutes to a draw with Tiger (Jeet) Singh, 260, and Bill Miller, 325.

Preliminaries

Michele Barone, 270, defeated Joe Christie, 240, with bear hug at 15:53 of scheduled 20-minute match.

Bulldog Brower, 273, and the Caped Crusader, 225, wrestled 15 minutes to a draw.

Georgios Kanelis, 232, and Fred Atkins, 250, wrestled 15 minutes to a draw.

Don McClarity, 260, defeated Bob Leipier, 255, with top spread at 10:53 of scheduled 15-minute match.

White Wolf Ruled Victor

Billy White Wolf and Professor Hiro battled fiercely Friday night at the Armory until Hiro used a chop to White Wolf's neck and drew the wrath of fans watching the featured bout on the pro wrestling card.

The chop was described as a karate blow by Paul Jones, and before the question was settled with Hiro's disqualification by the referee, the two combatants, Jones and Tony Borne had put on a wild melee for the fans.

Bulldog amazes fans by aiding Whip, ref

Gadzooks, the impossible happened yesterday afternoon in the wrestling at Maple Leaf Gardens! Bulldog Brower showed that deep down there some place is a streak of kindness.

That streak may be small, but it got Whipper Billy Watson out of a nasty situation.

Whip was declared winner of his match with Masked Yankee No. 1 because Masked Yankee No. 2 took a hand in the matter. Although Whip sad won, he and referee Tiger Tasker were being belted from pillar to post by the masked ones.

But then came Bulldog to the rescue. He chased the Yankees back into their cages—much to the amazement of Whip and the fans. Next week, East Lynne.

Semi-Final
Dr. Bill Miller, 375, and Bulldog Brower, 273, wrestled to draw in 20-minute tag-team match against Seaman Art Thomas, 268, and Ernie Ladd, 315.

Preliminaries
The Hat Man, Paul DiMarco, 234, won from Tiger Jeet Singh, 255. Singh disqualified 12:03 of 20-minute time-limit match.

Don McClarity, 260, defeated Hans Schmidt, 240, at 10:22 with brain-crusher and top spread.

Ox Anderson, 270, and Michele Barone, 260, wrestled 15 minutes to draw.

Jungle Jim Starr, 250, and Georgios Kanelis, 234, wrestled 15 minutes to draw.

NOTE:

Georgios Kanelis and Pat Flanagan, listed on the Toronto cards, in later years became referees for Promotor Frank Tunney in the same city. In the past, Flanagan was a close companion and tag team partner of Whipper Billy Watson.

A crowd of about 3,500 in the Municipal Auditorium watched Gene Kiniski, 275, win over The Stomper, 280, in the main event on a Veterans of Foreign Wars wrestling card last night.

The Stomper took the first fall with a series of stomps and a press. Kiniski downed The Stomper with a jump from the top rope and knee thrusts for the second pin. In the deciding fall, Kiniski forced The Stomper backward to the mat and covered for the count.

Cowboy Bob Ellis and Dick the Bruiser won in the tag-team semi-final over Bob Geigel and Bob Brown. Ellis made the single fall with a bulldog headlock on Brown.

Yankees unmasked at last

Those mean old Masked Yankees can no longer dispense their rough tactics in local wrestling rings. They have been unmasked and a Masked Yankee without his mask isn't up to much.

It all happened at Maple Leaf Stadium last night in front of 6,000 fans. Whipper Billy Watson and Bulldog Brower faced the Yankees, Watson had stated he would retire if beaten. The Yanks said they would unmask if they lost.

Watson and Brower won when the Yankees were unable to continue the match. Turns out the Yankees were really Bob Stan-lee and Moose Evans.

Semi-Final

Fred Atkins, 250, and Tiger Singh, 260, def. Johnny Valentine, 240, and Georgios Kanelos, 234. Singh pinned Kanelos with cobra hold at 16:01 of scheduled 30-minute match.

Ladd Faces Vachon on Mat Friday

Ernie Ladd hopes to defeat Mad Dog Vachon when the pair wrestle next Friday night in the Amphitheater so that he can get in a few more windup appearances before going into intensive training for the football season.

Ladd, who signed recently to play with the Houston Oilers in the American Football league, has been promised several more windup bouts in the Amphitheater if he wins over Vachon. Ladd switched his allegiance to the Oilers after playing last year with the San Diego Chargers.

However, with his success in the mat sport, Ladd's mat career has become as important to him as his gridiron activities. He can average $75,000 a year in wrestling. Ernie has appeared twice this season in Chicago in wrestling matches. Vachon, who owns the A. W. A. World's heavyweight mat title is giving away 85 pounds to Ladd, who scales 315.

The team of Dick the Bruiser and the Crusher will meet the Assassins in a tag match. Verne Gagne, who recently recovered from a siege of pneumonia, will tangle with Chris Narkoff. Wilbur Snyder meets Angelo Poffo; the Alaskan faces Dennis Dolly and Luis Martinez meets Golden Moose Cholak.

Monsoon, Watts in Mat Go

Two wrestling titles will be at stake on the Cow Palace program tonight. First preliminary starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Cowboy Bill Watts will defend his "United States" heavyweight championship against Gorilla Monsoon in a one fall to the finish match. Ray Stevens and Pat Fatterson risk their "world's" tag team crown against Kinji Shibuya and Cyclone Negro.

Other matches: Pepper Gomez-Victor Rivra vs. Al Costello-Frank Shields, Pedro Morales vs. The Spoiler, Joe Scarpa vs. Gentleman Jim Hady, Claude (Thunderbolt) Peters vs. Stan Neilson, Omar Atlas vs. Ricky Hunter.

Kiniski Holds Mat Crown

Big Gene Kiniski retained his world heavyweight wrestling title at the Portland Armory Friday night as his challenger, Tony Borne of Portland, staggered around the ring blinded by his own blood and referee Jack Terry called the bout.

Borne battled Kiniski on even terms until a cut was opened over the local grappler's eye and could no longer continue.

In other bouts Haystack Calhoun and Rene Golet were awarded the victory in their match with Don Savage and the Crusher due to a disqualification, the Great Fugi toppled Arman Hussien and Paul Diamond drew with Pancho Lopez.

Ref Jake Smith Is No Help As Ex-Buddy Brown Loses

Jake Smith wasn't much help to his former tag team buddy, Big Luke Brown, at the City Auditorium Arena Saturday night.

Jake and Luke were Southern tag kings before going their separate ways, and Saturday night Jake joined Ernie Dusek as referee of the Brown-Tim Woods effort to dethrone Midwest champs Dale Lewis and Handsome Harley Race.

But in the end, it was Jake counting out his old partner in the third and decisive fall. Luke was prostrate outside the ring after a severe buffeting by Dale and Handsome Harley.

The 2,409 had a chance to cheer for heroes Luke and Tim at 9:01 when Tim pinned Lewis with a slam. But Lewis, the former University of Oklahoma star, beat Tim with a back-breaker at 16:35 to even the match.

Before taking to the refereeing chores, Jake took two straight falls over Tiny Mills in the semi-windup.

Ron Reed subdued Bulldog Plechas at 16:18 of the special, while Larry (Pretty Boy) Hennig, former tag mate of Race, beat Carlos Colone in 11:39.

Next City Auditorium show: Saturday night, August 27.

In the third fall, the Viking and O'Connor collided in mid-ring and the Viking covered O'Connor for the count.

In the finish match that went five falls in 25 minutes, Sonny Myers was the winner over Alex Perez, who was unable to come out for the sixth fall after Myers had applied a sleeper hold. Perez had won two of the falls.

Fritz, Waldo Win Feature

Fritz and Waldo Von Erich won their tag team main event in front of a near capacity house on the initial wrestling card presented by promoter Ed McLe-more Tuesday night at the Bron-co Bowl Arena.

The Von Erichs won by disqual-ification when an angered Cow-boy Bob Ellis was an illegal sub-stitute for Duke Keomuka's in-jured partner Ricky Romero in the last fall of the three fall fea-ture.

Ellis won his semifinal in quick fashion over Swede Karlsen. Art Nelson stopped Bob Boyer and Bulldog Pleches pinned Speedy Gonzales. The Mighty Ursus de-feated Blackjack Daniels.

Evans Team 'Cap Winners At Auditorium

Moose and Giant Evans were declared winners in the handi-cap match that featured last night's wrestling card at Munic-ipal Auditorium when Luke Graham was disqualified for hit-ting Moose with an object.

GIANT EVANS eliminated Saul Weingeroff first and then was ousted by Karl Von Brauner. The latter was the next to go and that left it up to Moose and Graham.

The card, attended by 4,959 fans, which included 1,217 fam-ily night spectators, was con-sidered a rousing success by pro-moters Nick Gulas and Roy Welch who will present a pro-gram weekly in the auditorium until the State Fair is over.

Only one of the two belt matches on the card was held. Len Rossi, who was to defend his southern tag team belt along with Mario Milano, had to pass up the match because of the death of his father in Utica, N.Y. Milano teamed with Manny Tor-res and they lost in two of three falls to Tojo Yamamoto and Tamayo Soto.

AL COSTELLO was disqual-ified in his bid to regain the southern junior heavyweight title from Fabulous Jackie Far-go. Costello, apparently losing, started using rough tactics and hit referee Fred Bass.

In other matches, Herb Larson needed but 11 minutes to defeat Luis Garcia and Jose Moto used judo chops to beat Joe Wolfe in nine minutes.

Jackie Fargo Disqualified In Belt Bout

Two disqualifications occurred in the feature wrestling matches before a crowd of 5,022 fans last night at Municipal Auditorium.

IN A battle for the NWA world heavyweight belt, Gene Kiniski won over Jackie Fargo when referee Wiley Bean dis-qualified Fargo for throwing Kiniski out of the ring. This was met by large booing by the fans who didn't believe Fargo threw him out intentionally. In the first fall, Kiniski won in 13 minutes with slams, knee drops and press.

In the struggle for the South-ern tag team belt, the team of Tojo Yamamoto and Tamaya Soto was a winner over Len Rossi and Mario Milano.

Tojo won the first fall, pinning Rossi with a Japanese claw in eight minutes. Rossi evened it up, pinning Soto with a sleeper in six minutes.

IN THE decisive fall, Rossi was cut Tojo's wooden shoe and went berserk. He brought a chair into the ring and starting hitting everybody. When he connected with referee Fred Bass, Rossi and Milano were disqualified. However, the belt does not change hands on a dis-qualification.

In the opening match of the card, Jose Moto beat Charley Lay in nine minutes with judo chops.

Karl Von Brauner then beat Gus Kalis with a back breaker in eight minutes. Giant Evans and Al Costello battled to a 10-minutes draw. In the Indian strap chain match, Moose Evans beat Luke Graham in 12 minu-tes with a bear hug.

NOTE:

Bulldog Flechas on the Dallas card in later years served in the capa-city of referee in the same city and general area.

Dusek Bops The Bruiser; Big Luke, Smith Triumph

Ernie Dusek got even for a lot of frustrated rasslin' referees Saturday night.

Crusty Ernie, knocked galley west by Dick The Bruiser and the Crusher at the climax of the third fall of the City Auditorium tag team match, remained prostrate while Co-Referee Bulldog Plechas disqualified the champs.

Then, as the 3,534 City Auditorium fans cheered the decision giving the Kentuckians victory, Ernie staggered to his feet and a pantented Dusek right to The Bruiser's chops.

Dick went down as if shot — as the ringsiders cheered Ernie and swarmed the ring to shake his hand. "I should've done it,"

Ernie said later in the dressing room. "But sometimes a guy gets just too much abuse. I did the natural thing."

So Big Luke Brown and Jake Smith, 740 pounds of 'em in the aggregate, got the decision—and Ernie had his revenge.

Dale Lewis won two out of three from Doug Gilbert in the semi-windup. Ron Reed beat Handsome Harley Race and Tim Wood drew with the Mad Russian in the prelims.

Next City Auditorium show is October 8.

Graham-Lothario Mat Team Given Decision

TAMPA — Eddie Graham and El Gran Lothario were declared the winners on a technicality in their match with Sputnik Monroe and Don McClarity in last night's wrestling show at Fort Homer Hesterly Armory.

In a co-feature, Lew Thesz and Les Welch teamed to defeat Kurt and Skull Vonstroheim.

Preliminary matches saw the Masked Infernos beat Sam Steamboat and Dick Steinborn in a tag match and Hiro Matsuda pin Silento Rodriguez and The Mummy defeat Argentina Zuma in two solo matches.

Monsoon Meets Two Opponents At Cow Palace

Gerilla Monsoon, 385 pounds, will take on two men, Joe Scarpa and Pedro Morales, in the special attraction of the Cow Palace wrestling program tomorrow night.

Arakawa Stops Bruiser To Get Wrestling Title

Mitsu Arakawa became the new world heavyweight champion, as recognized by the World Wrestling Alliance, in one of the feature events of Saturday night's pro wrestling card at the Coliseum.

Arakawa defeated Dick the Bruiser in a 16-minute three-fall match when, undetected by the referee, he applied illegal (according to Indiana State Athletic Commission rules) karate chops.

Chris Markoff and Angelo Poffo retained their world's tag team championship by defeating Wilbur Snyder and Luis Martinez, two out of three falls, 21 minutes.

The deciding fall came when Bobby Heenan, manager of the titleholders, aided Markoff from his post outside the ring. Markoff was hooked over the top rope by Snyder and when Heenan reached in to release Markoff's feet, Markoff fell on top of Snyder for the winning pin.

In other bouts the Destroyer defeated and unmasked the Assassin who turned out to be Joe Tomasso of Kansas City, Mo.; Jose Betancourt pinned Moose Cholak, 15 minutes; Igor Volkoff defeated Tom Jones, 12 minutes, and in a women's event Sharon Lass beat Rita Crawford, 15 minutes.

THESZ AND BRISCO TACKLE ASSASSINS

Lou Thesz

Ed "Strangler" Lewis

One of wrestling's all time greats, former heavyweight champion Lou Thesz will join Oklahoma's Jack Brisco for a U.S. tag title match with the Assassins and Danny Hodge hooks up with unbeaten Chris Tolos in a loser-leave-town scrap in twin features on Monday's Civic Center wrestling card. Bell time is 8:15.

Hoping to unmask the Assassins, LeRoy McGuirk urged Thesz to fly here from his home in California and join Brisco for Monday's joust. And the panther-like Thesz, who held the world's heavyweight crown four times, has very few losses on his record so the masked pair could lose both their U.S. tag championship and their hoods.

Hodge is risking his chances for a title rematch with the Assassin in the loser-leave-town battle but feels that a victory over the unbeaten Montreal Greek would earn him an immediate title shot.

The top preliminary sends stormy Rocky Montero against handsome Tony Manos of Greece and the card opens with a one faller between Johnny Zenda and Nikita Mullovich.
